Honoring . . .

Superintendent Holt and his family: Mary, Bob, Jim, Mrs. Holt, and Superintendent Holt.

Whenever a community shows educational growth, it is evident that behind this progress are men of foresight. To such an individual we dedicate The 1959 Bend.

To the students and faculty of West Bend High School Superintendent Fred Holt represents understanding, guidance, and encouragement. His greatest attribute, however, is his foresight --- foresight which has kept the educational system apace with the growth of the community.

Under his leadership, during the past eleven years, both the high school and the grade schools have expanded. At the same time, a broader curriculum has been offered, and the educational rating of the West Bend Public Schools has improved. We regret that this year is his last one at West Bend; we wish him well as the new superintendent at Janesville, Wisconsin.

For outstanding leadership and service, we dedicate the forty-fourth volume of the Bend to Superintendent Fred Holt.

. . . and furthermore

Superintendent Fred Holt

Constructing the Future...

Former students and faculty members returning last fall, as well as the incoming freshmen and new faculty members, certainly must have been amazed and surprised when they entered the modern addition to West Bend High School. Ever since February 1, 1957, when the ground was broken for the $1,425,000 addition, its completion had been eagerly awaited.

The facilities in the new addition include a double gym, chorus and band rooms, a swimming pool, health room, a multi-purpose activity room, high school classrooms, and several vocational rooms. At the same time the old gym was transformed into a well-equipped, efficient cafeteria, and the old cafeteria, band, and chorus areas were changed into regular classrooms.

The new double gym and swimming pool were welcomed by the physical education department and the entire student body. Now instead of using the McLane gym, the athletes and students have access to a high school gym and at one time can be seated for general assemblies, pep meetings, and entertainment programs. Wrestling and swimming teams have been added to the list of competitive sports. Swimming classes have become a part of the physical education system.

Open to the students during the day and to the community after school hours is a multi-purpose activity room. With a juke box, hi-fi, and TV, the YAC (Youth Activity Center) furnishes musical entertainment. This large recreational area provides table tennis and pool tables, a large area for dancing, and a snack-bar.

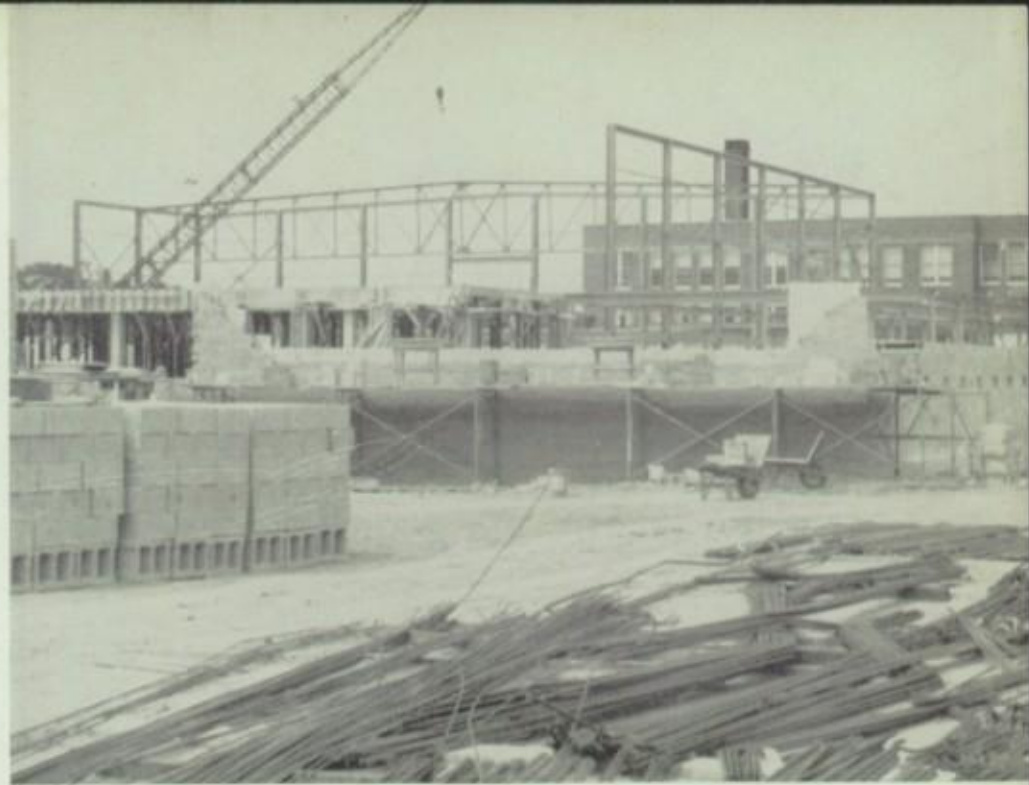

The back and front views reveal beauty and modern design.

The spacious band and chorus rooms meet the needs of the music department very well. Both rooms are equipped with risers and the most up-to-date audio equipment and provide adequate practice rooms and storage space.

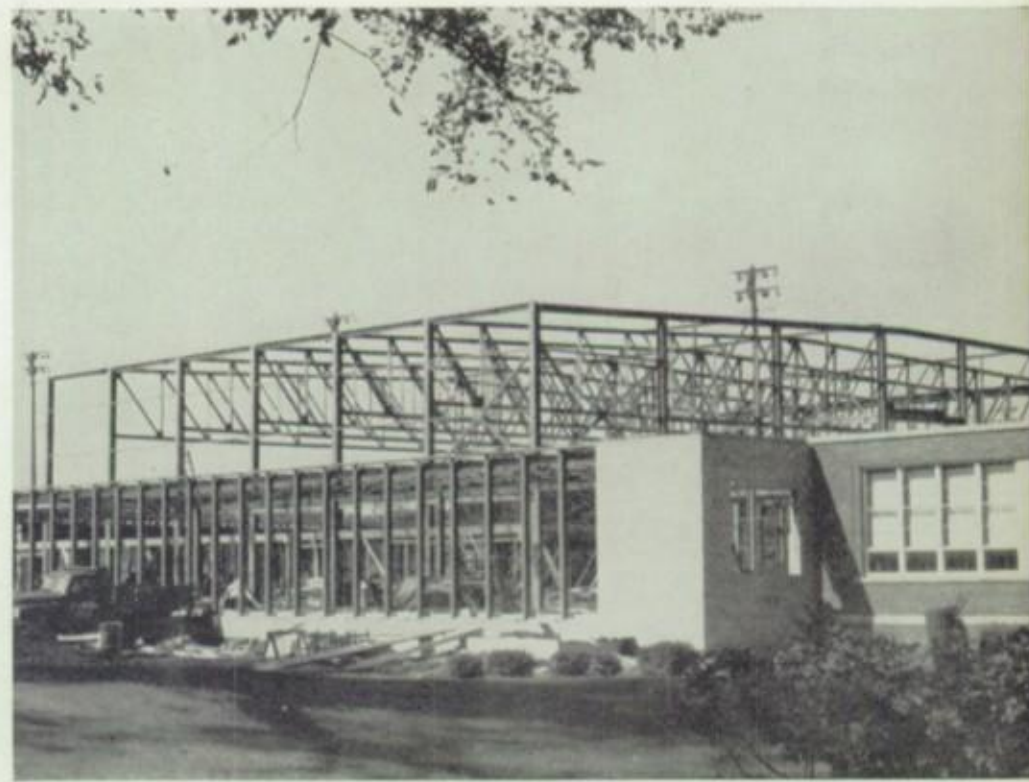

Since the new addition has been built, its facilities have not only given the students opportunities for learning and recreation, but have also enabled the people of the community to participate more completely in the educational program. Truly the school has become more community-centered.

Steel beams shape the pattern of the new addition.

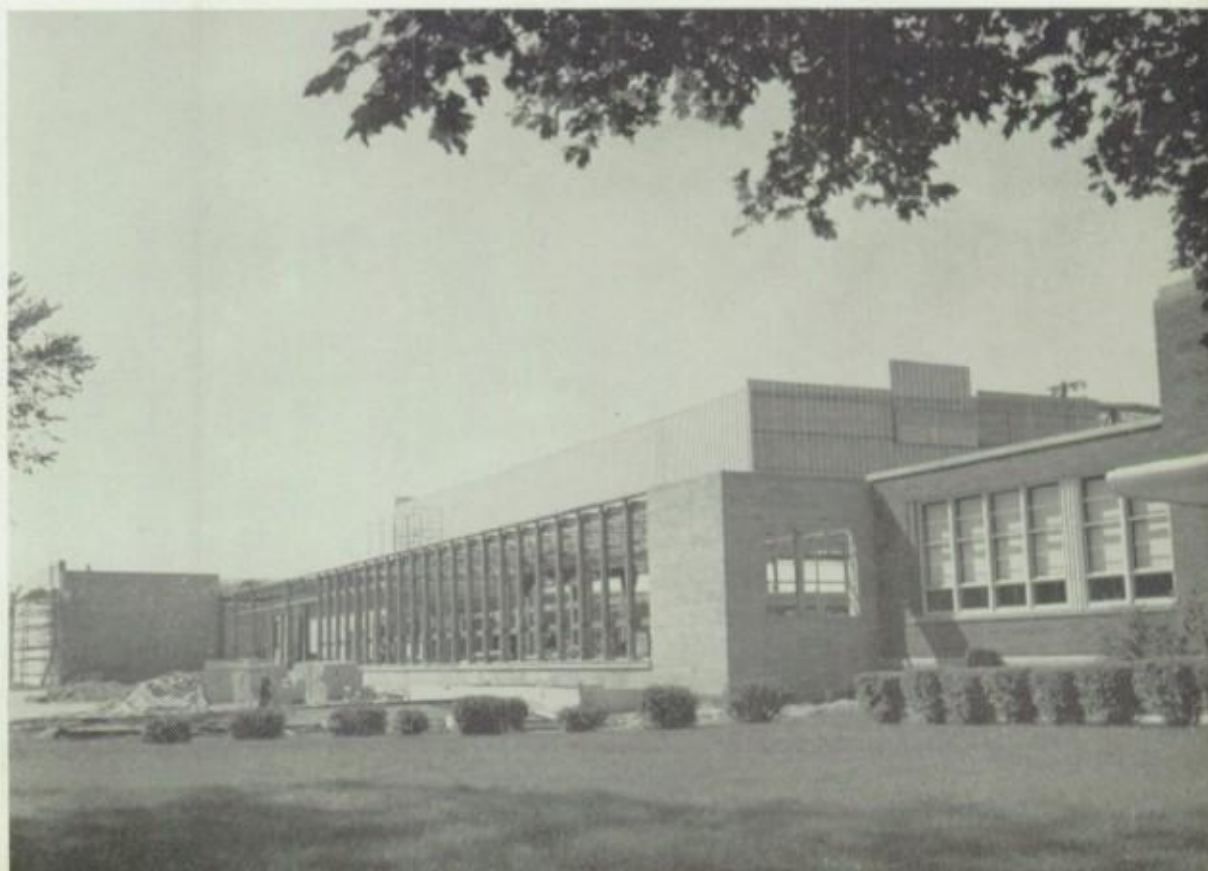

The gymnasium structure and materials appear as work began.

EDUCATION FOR A FIRM FOUNDATION

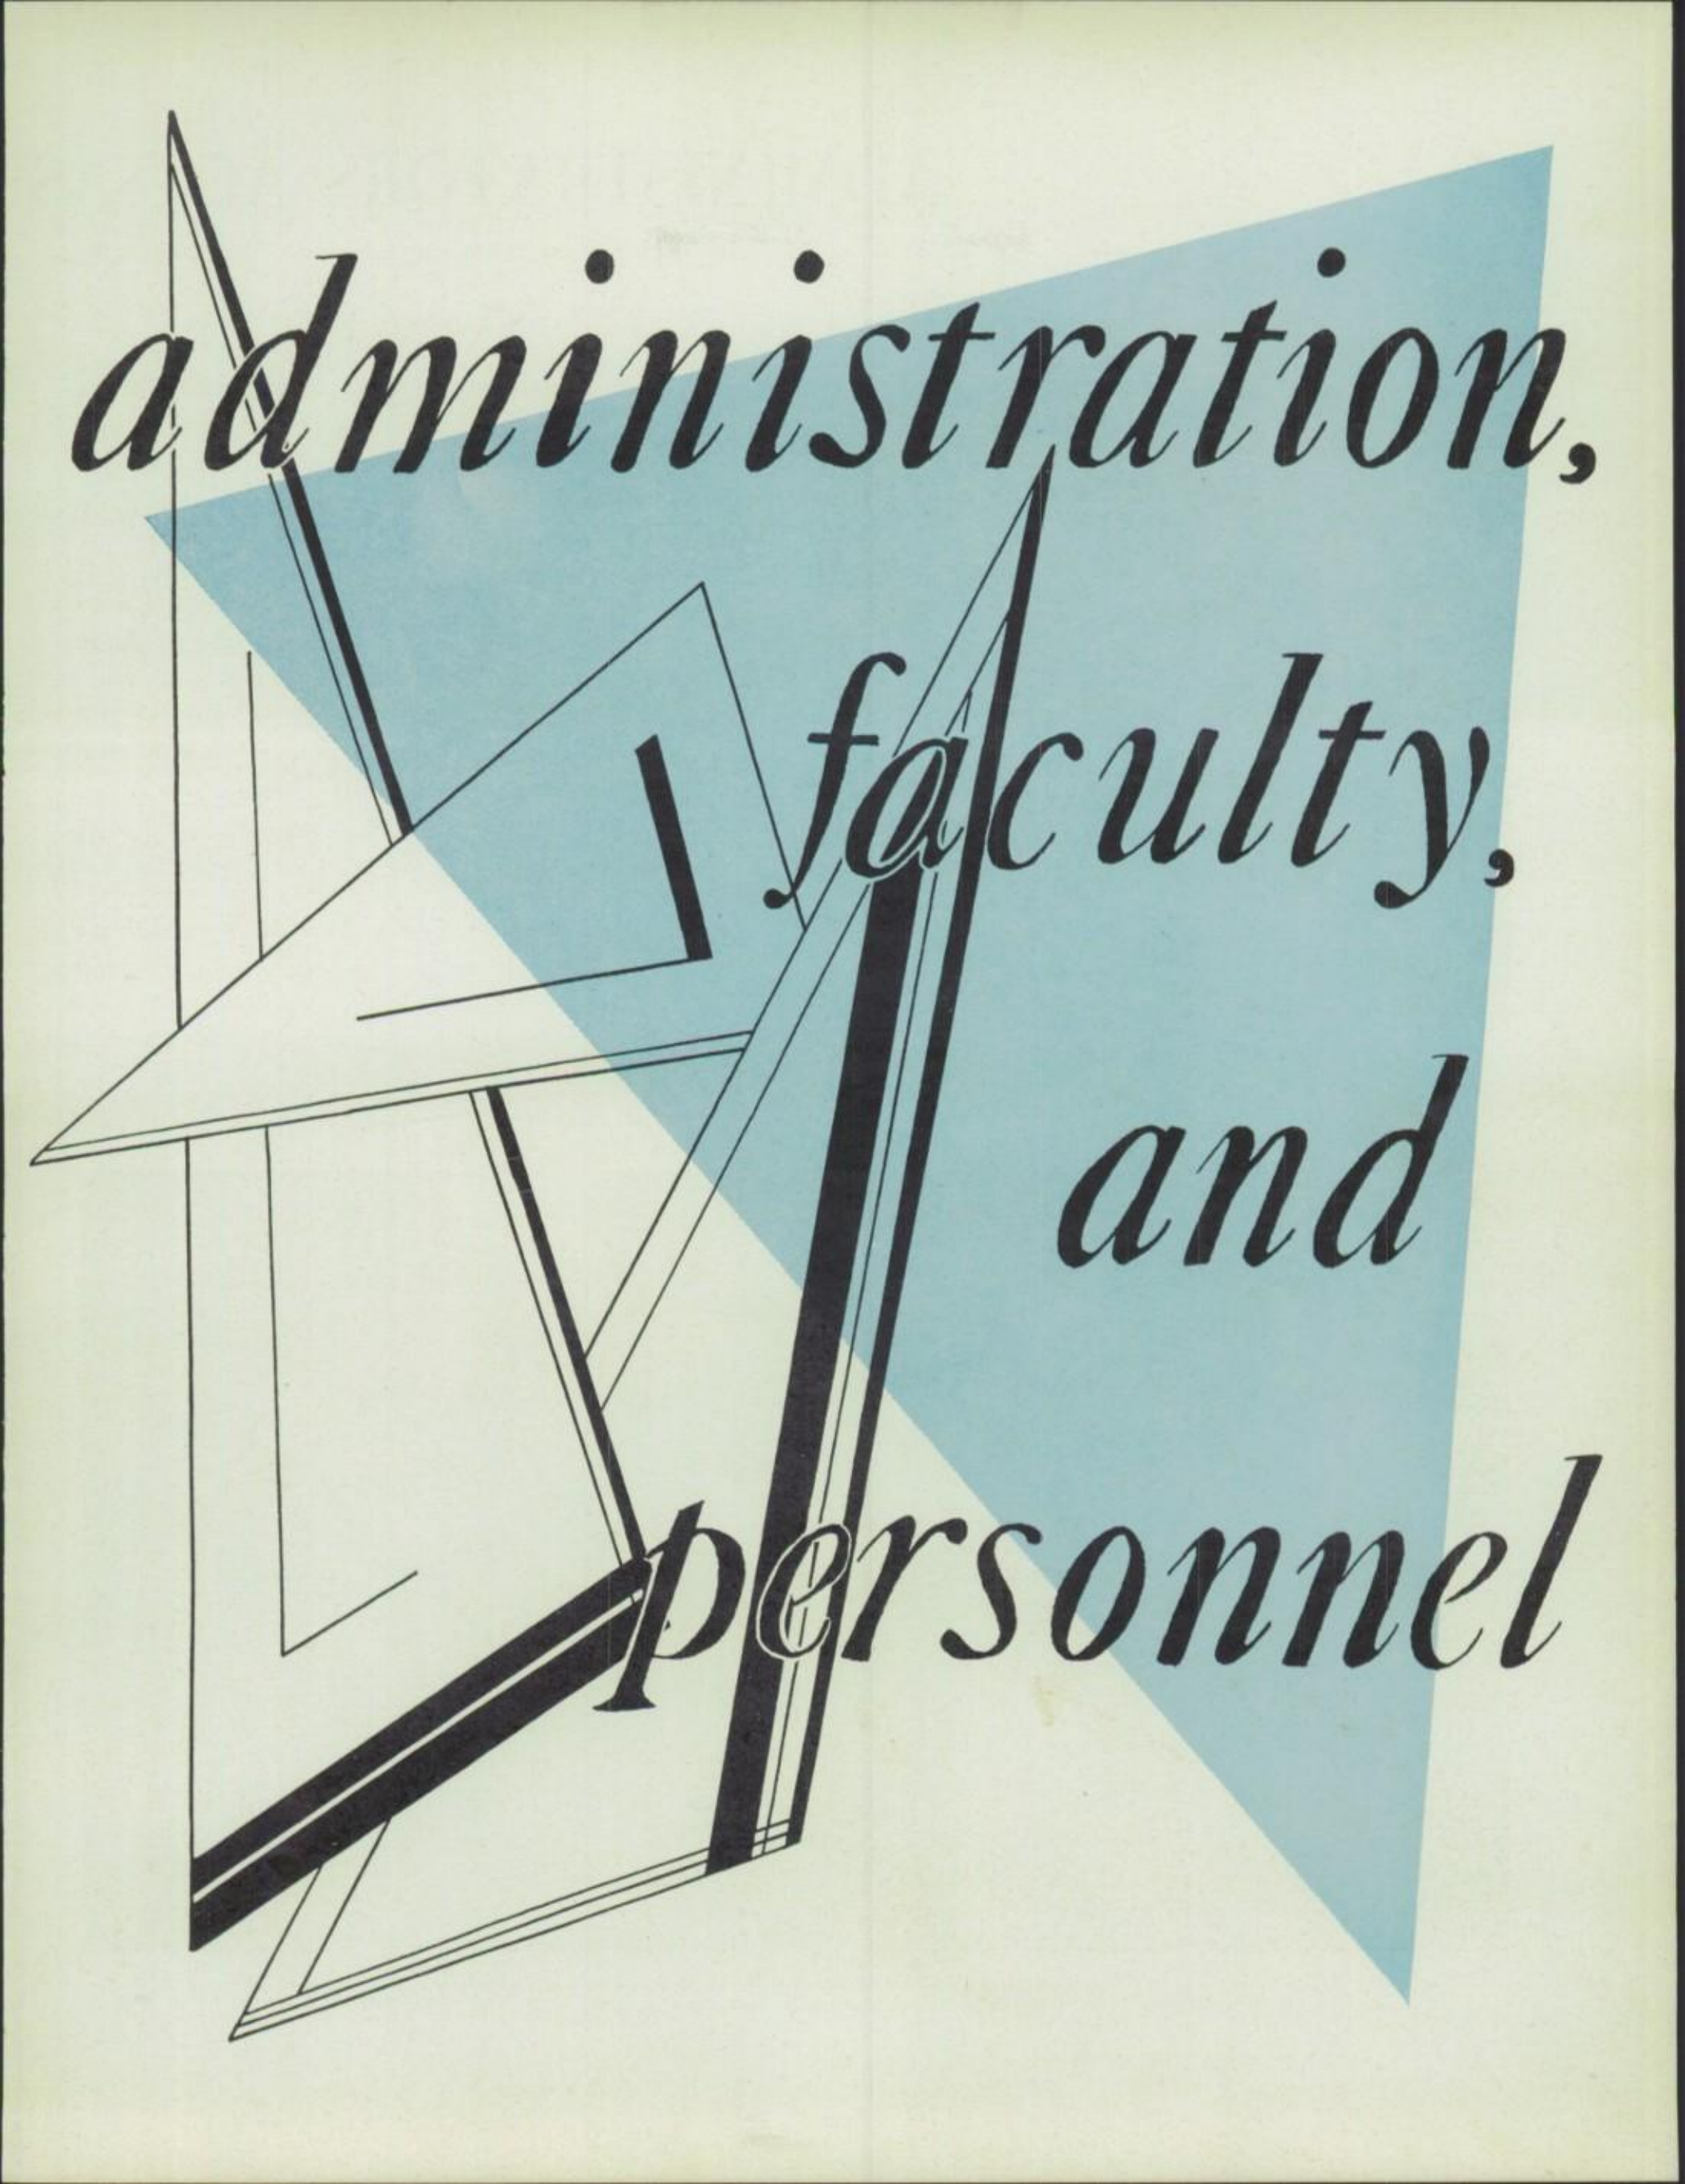

Gymnasium: Offering quite a contrast to our previous gym, the new gymnasium is one of the highlights of the addition.

Boiler Room: One of the outstanding features behind the scenes is the new boiler room.

Back of School: As one looks northeast from the football field, the colorful addition is an impressive sight.

An abstract geometric design featuring overlapping triangles and lines. A large, light blue triangle is the central element, with several black lines intersecting it. Some lines are thin and form a complex web, while others are thick and bold, creating a sense of depth and movement. The overall composition is dynamic and modern.

ADMINISTRATORS ACT AS

Principal Fred Schultz takes time out to have his picture snapped.

The community of West Bend may rightfully boast of its capable high school administration and personnel. Through their leadership and guidance each member of the student body takes his place in campus academic and social life.

The West Bend School Board, Mr. Fred Schultz, high school principal, and Mr. Fred Holt, superintendent of West Bend Public Schools, have conscientiously worked together in a successful effort to manage and improve our curriculum. The construction of the new south addition has added new responsibilities in the organization of its facilities.

We students at West Bend High School are indeed fortunate to have excellent faculty members who have all played a part in laying the foundation and in the building of our house of knowledge. In addition, we feel it is extraordinary to find that each of them possesses that personal interest which is so vital in stimulating students toward the achievement of their goals.

Along with required studies, an extensive program of electives has been developed so that each pupil can easily find several subjects of interest to him. In extra-curricular activities students may participate in sports, clubs, intramurals, dramatics, or music.

Last but by no means least, recognition must be given to the office personnel, the custodians, and the cooks. Each of these groups is important to all.

Superintendent Fred Holt is proud of his new office.

196 SENIORS CONSTRUCTING

With graduation upon us, we, the class of 1959, look back over our four fleeting years of high school with mixed emotions. First, we are aware of a sense of emptiness, realizing that our high school years are lost forever --- these years with their sorrows and joys, their tears and triumphs. But we also experience a new sense of fulfillment, secure in the knowledge that we have lived these years to the utmost and that what we have gained from them justifies this feeling of accomplishment. True, the hallways of West Bend High will soon be only a memory, but one which will be cherished as we go through life.

Thoughts such as these were farthest from our minds as we entered our freshman year, eager to partake of all that high school had to offer. Enthusiastic, but a little bewildered, we set out to make a place for ourselves among the established, experienced upperclassmen. Nor was this an easy task, for we soon discovered that only honest effort, in and out of the classroom, would make us worthy members of the student body. As freshmen, we turned to the fair sex for leadership, electing as our class officers President Mary Jo Thompson, Vice-president Sally Laycock, and Secretary-treasurer Judy Maxon. Our "greenness" soon wore off, however, as we became active in debate, forensics, intramurals, and athletics. One of the highlights of our freshman year was homecoming, with freshman Bob Cooley finding the toothpick, and Carol Matenaer being our choice for the court. With the passing of another important event, the May Ball, our freshman year came to a close.

Returning again to WBHS as sophomores, we began our activities with new feelings of security and responsibility. Elected as our new class officers were Carl Schmidt, president; Mary Jo Thompson, vice-president; and Judy Schleif, secretary-treasurer. Socially, our sophomore year began with the election of Joan Cotter to the homecoming court. On the athletic field, our class of '59 contributed several members to varsity teams. Also as sophomores, many members of our class distinguished themselves in dramatics, forensics, and music. One of the year's greatest undertakings was our very successful post-prom party, entitled "Mardi Gras." As the short months of our sophomore year slipped by, we soon come to the midpoint of our high school career.

HAVE HEAD START THEIR FUTURE

Our junior year was a year of great excitement and activity. To serve in the dual role of president and prom king we elected Pat Kenny, while to fill the other executive positions we chose Vice-president Carl Schmidt and Secretary-treasurer Mary Jo Thompson. To the position of senate secretary-treasurer, Barb Fuge was elected. Homecoming, as usual, was a big event, with Shelby Schenk representing us on the court of honor. Mr. Panfil's homeroom took a first place in the window competition, while Miss Podruch's produced a third place float. Again, from our class, came stars of both stage and gridiron. In the spring of the year, nine members of our class were honored by election to the National Honor Society. But by far the crowning glory of our junior year was, of course, the prom. Working into the wee hours of the morning to complete preparations, we took great pride in leading King Pat, with his queen, Charlotte Frankow, and their court into a setting of magnificent oriental splendor. But, as the last strains of "Sayonara" drifted away, we realized that the end of our wonderful junior year, too, was close at hand.

Now, as seniors, we had reached the true climax of our high school years. Still wondering where these years had gone, we resolutely set out to live to the fullest our final months at WBHS. To fill the offices of our class of '59, we elected Carl Schmidt, president; John Lay, vice-president; Sue Weinert, secretary; and Mary Jo Thompson, treasurer. Janet Runge, AFS summer student just returned from Finland, was also elected secretary-treasurer of the student senate. Our representative on the 1958 Homecoming court was Merrie Heil; and, for the second consecutive year, Mr. Panfil's homeroom won the window competition. Mary Jo Thompson, our treasurer, received the distinction of becoming the first candidate in the history of WBHS for the Little Ten Wrestling Queen. Also, but in a more scholarly area, two seniors, Carl Schmidt and Joan Race received high rankings in the National Merit Scholarship competition. Engaged in a veritable host of activities, we found that our days, as seniors, flew by faster than ever. Still, in everything we undertook, there was a certain sense of finality, a knowledge that our time at West Bend High would soon be brought to completion. With this in mind, then, we approached that day of days --- commencement. Valedictorian Carl Schmidt and salutatorian Mary Gehl solemnly led the class of '59 to receive their diplomas.

The pattern is set, and our futures begin!

Joan Race and Carl Schmidt won top honors in the National Merit Scholarship test.

Local DAR winner, Nancy Bales, goes over her work before class begins.

JUNIORS---A STEP FROM COMPLETION

Juniors! The fact that we were finally juniors, and thereby able to call ourselves upperclassmen, made us very happy as we began our third year at West Bend High School. The first task which awaited us was to elect our class officers: Jeff Hoy as president, Laurie Dunlop vice-president, and Kay Pleshek secretary-treasurer. We also had two juniors holding office in the student senate. Bill King was elected president and John Klein vice-president of the organization.

We are proud of the fact that the junior candidate for the Homecoming Court, Laurie Dunlop, was elected Homecoming Queen. Laurie and her escort, Anatol Janicki, reigned at the homecoming dance. In the homecoming parade, Miss Birkholz's homeroom won second place in the float competition.

We were well represented on the varsity football team by outstanding juniors, such as Bob Arendt, Jim Barber, Jeff Hoy, Dave Bales, Gene Scharrer, Bernie Spaeth, Bob Stoffel, and a number of others. Playing hard for the "A" basketball team were Gene Beimborn, Ken Hemauer, Anatol Janicki, Mike Johnson, Bill King, John Klein, and Bernie Spaeth.

Junior Officers --- Vice-president Laurie Dunlop and Secretary-treasurer Kay Pleshek, check President Jeff Hoy's grades.

The championship debate squad this year was composed of many juniors.

Junior girls showed pep and enthusiasm on the cheerleading squads. Sally Stanfield cheered for the "A" squad, while Penny Harth, Kay Pleshek, and Marilyn Yogerst cheered on the "B" squad.

Many juniors played an important part on the debate team. However, we are especially proud of Jim Holt and Steve Werner who did an excellent job throughout the year. In other activities, such as forensics and all-school plays, juniors also showed their talents. Laurie Dunlop and Jim Barber showed fine singing and acting ability in the musical comedy, "Annie Get Your Gun," in which they had the lead parts.

As we look back on the thrilling times we had as juniors, we are sorry that the year has come to an end, but we are also looking forward to next year when we will hold the esteemed title of senior.

SOPHOMORES BUILD ON FRAMEWORK

Sophomore president, Bob Wegner sells ice cream cones to vice-president, Kathy Eklo and secretary, Julie Simoneau.

In the fall of 1958, 236 students entered the halls of West Bend High School as sophomores, a much-coveted title, which means 236 really belong.

The first business of the year was the election of class officers. The sophomore class made excellent selections in the persons of Bob Wegner, president; Kathy Eklo, vice-president; and Julie Simoneau, secretary-treasurer.

After the elections in fall, came the football season. The class of '61 had their representatives on the varsity team; Paul Fischer and Chuck Placek upheld the honor of the class.

Along with the football season, naturally came homecoming. We chose Kathy Eklo as our representative on the homecoming court. She was escorted in the grand march by Bob Wegner. Mr. Runge's home-room won first prize for the best float with the slogan, "We're Expecting a Victory."

As the leaves fell and old man winter began to spread his white blanket over the ground, basketball became the main sport. Doug Potter ably represented us on the "A" team. Mike Weber, Steve Roecker, and John Metz were outstanding on the "B" squad.

What basketball game is complete without cheerleaders? Jane Bauer, Kathy Eklo, and Sue Bradley were there cheering our boys to victory. Victory was also evident in other fields. Mike Nicholson, one of the most outstanding members of the newly formed swimming squad, broke many school records; while Leon Goska, Paul Fischer, Gary Finch, and Peter Berkholtz did excellent jobs on the "A" debate team.

After the arrival of our class rings, we were proud to turn our talents to decorating and managing the Post Prom into a circus atmosphere. The theme of "Carousel" was artistically carried out with huge billboards of clown paintings and an appropriate menu. Entertainment was provided by Abdul the Magician, the Cokettes, and the Johnny Zarck Trio. As was expected, the time was well spent, and the evening was a huge success.

Our social year ended with the annual May Ball. Sponsored by the underclassmen, the dance had a court consisting of freshmen and sophomores. This year's sophomore representatives on the court were as follows: Ilona Marton, escorted by Jamie Gibson; Patty Vass and John Wandschneider; Rosemary Frankow and Dick Bennett; and Marie Bock with Bob Wegner.

We turn our backs on our sophomore year with fond memories. With much enthusiasm we are looking toward the record we will make as juniors.

FRESHMEN GATHER TOOLS FOR

Jeff Haebig, president; Karen Laubenstein, secretary-treasurer; and Bill Schober, vice-president.

This year has been a very special one for the freshman class. Not only were we excited about coming to West Bend High School, but we also were particularly enthusiastic about the fact that we were to be the first freshmen to use the facilities of the beautiful new addition. At first, before we became accustomed to the new surroundings, we were somewhat confused. But this year the freshmen were not alone in their confusion because even the upperclassmen were in the same predicament. However, it didn't take long for all of us to become familiar with the routine and to find our way around.

The first big step which the freshmen took was the election of class officers. We were all proud of the selections which were made when we elected Jeff Haebig as president, Bill Schober as vice-president, and Karen Labisky as secretary-treasurer.

Our first homecoming came early in the school year and gave us an exciting introduction to a high school full of spirit. Many of the floats and windows of our class were unusual and displayed much talent and imagination. Our class representative for the homecoming court was Mary Lauson. Of course, the most exciting part of all was the game and victory, making us feel even more a part of the school and giving us pride in our team. We all hope that our future homecomings will be as exciting as this first one.

The class was represented in the Student Senate by Steve Benedict, Dee Dee Brown, Jane Gehl, Dennis Hembel, Dawn Kocher, Karen Laubenstein, Gail Mueller, Bill Schober, Jane Schloemer, Tom West, who worked enthusiastically on the senate committees.

The freshmen participated in many school activities. Many went out for debate and forensics. Dramatics and intramurals also engaged many of our classmates during the year.

Our "C" football team was a credit to the school and was cheered on to victory by a corps of competent cheerleaders: Barbara Leitheiser, Sharon Frank, Karen Laubenstein, Betty Marks and Sharon Quade.

One of the social highlights of the year was the annual freshman-sponsored Mayball. Selected for the court this year were Chris O'Meara, escorted by Bill Schober; Betty Marks and Bill Sackett; and Sandy Crabb with Jack Kaehny.

All in all, our freshman year has been a very happy and successful one. We can look forward with pride to our next three years in WBHS.

Looks like Steve Roecker's giving the new freshmen a hard time.

--- Our Government

Senate Officers at Work: Bill King, president; John Klein, vice-president; Janet Runge, secretary-treasurer

Student senators listen attentively while being informed about the teen-age code.

The student senate which was designed to fill the needs of the students in various school functions and activities began its work in fall by preparing for homecoming. The vice-president, John Klein, and secretary-treasurer, Janet Runge, worked laboriously with President Bill King so that the students might have the traditional homecoming with all the trimmings.

Outside of the usual obligations of the senate, the members cooperated with the YAC council to bring about a Parent-Student Code for West Bend High School.

Throughout the year the student senate was under the guidance of Mr. Ace Allen, faculty advisor, whose contributions helped make the senate run smoothly. Assisting him in the awards day program was Mr. Hildebrand.

Senators, under Mr. Allen's guidance, contemplate an important issue.

The YAC Council is the governing body of the Youth Activity Center at West Bend High School. Its purpose is to assist, plan, and organize the operations of the youth center, soda fountain, special events, and civic, charitable, and money-making programs. The majority of the social functions in West Bend High are held in the YAC and are therefore under the supervision of the YAC Council.

Susie Umbs, president; Jim Holt, vice-president; and Susan Anderson, secretary-treasurer, worked with Mr. Carpenter, Miss Hallwachs, and Mr. Allen, the Director of Recreation.

A. F. S. EXCHANGE OF INTERNATIONAL

Under the auspices of the American Field Service, I spent the summer of 1958 in the country of Finland. My foster family, the Backmans, consisted of Papa, a minister in the Lutheran Church; Mama; Bo, a twenty year old brother in the military service; Anna Christina, 16, the only girl in the family; Karl Gustar, 15; and Jan Erik, 13.

Most of the summer we spent on an island in the Bay of Bothnia. Of the last two weeks we spent one at a church camp and the other in Helsinki.

It certainly was a wonderful experience living in Finland for a summer. I enjoyed every minute of it, learning to know the Finns and their customs. Learning to eat five meals a day was the hardest task, but the food was delicious. One of the strangest customs is the Finnish bath, the Sauora, which is a very refreshing steam bath.

It was such a wonderful experience that I wish I could share it with everyone. --- Janet Runge.

TUNGIA BAKER FROM NEW ZEALAND

*"Ka tu te matarangi; ka tu te matawhenua.

"I stand, where there is new earth beneath my feet; I stand, where there is a new sky above my head. O, Spirit of the Land, the stranger offers her heart to thee."

There comes to each of us, at least once, a time when the making of a decision will either make or mar whatever comes after. That experience came to me when I decided to apply for an American Field Service International Scholarship, and once having made that decision, I have never regretted it.

I came from a country (roughly the size of Nevada state) with a population of two and a half million people, to a continent that stretched from ocean to ocean and whose peoples numbered 175,000,000; from a private school with a roll of 83 girls, to a co-ed school with a roll of 990 students; from a class of six to a class of 196 --- to a home away from home. I little knew, as I stood on "D" Deck of the "Oronsay" that foggy morning of July 31 when we steamed into San Francisco Bay, what lay ahead of me, but this I determined: in spite of what I had already learned by way of textbook, newspaper, or screen, I knew nothing about your country, but I was prepared to learn. And I have not been disappointed.

I have much to be thankful for: warmth in the knowledge that you unhesitatingly accepted one, who is now no longer a foreigner, in your midst; the telephone call home at Christmas; your spirited help at all times; the many friendships; and yes . . . the snow. I have learned to say "Ja" as only a West Bender could say it --- I never had an opportunity to say "Nein"; the "trunk" of your auto becomes the "boot" of our car; you walk on a sidewalk, and we on a footpath; you take ketchup while we use sauce; our biscuits are your cookies; our scones are your biscuits --- these are among the many differences of expression that I have noticed. Yes, this has been a rewarding year. I have come to recognize that first impressions are more misleading than they appear to be, that a country is judged not by what you read of it, but by what you see of its people. Because of this, it is no easy task being a representative of your native land. I know now that there are more ways to do a thing than those to which I am accustomed, and I know that there is a group of very fine people in West Bend, USA.

(1 for every 26 people), but apparently I didn't know that there were so many people in the United States because I was very astonished when I saw the parking area at Idlewild Airport in New York.

People often think we speak German in Denmark; what a mistake. We, of course, speak plain Danish. As my mother wrote in a Christmas letter, the first half year went fast, but the second half seems to go faster, and I don't know what is going to happen when I have to leave. That will be difficult because I feel at home in West Bend. During the past months I have enjoyed every minute, hour, day, and week, especially my work on the swimming team with Coach Bowlus.

In conclusion I wish to give my sincere thanks to all the students who made it possible for me to talk to my parents in Denmark, an event I wouldn't have dreamed about before. Once again "tusuid tak." --- Peter Toubro.

Because of the AFS program, all of this has been made possible; and when I return to my homeland to tell my people about you and my experiences here in the States, I shall know that although the USA is not West Bend, for me West Bend, Wisconsin, is the USA. --- Tungia Baker.

PETER FROM DENMARK

When I arrived in the United States, I didn't know too much about America and Americans, but the little bit I knew was all wrong because what we in Denmark know about the United States we get from the movies and the newspapers. After living here in West Bend seven months, I have learned a lot.

I never knew that people could be so kind, but I have found out that all Americans are that way. I knew that there were a lot of cars

BEND---Pictures, Printing, Yearly Deadline

Bend editors Charlotte Frankow, Barb Eklo, and Judy Nehrbass prepare copy and pictures for printing.

Paul Dickmann, Ray Krell, and Dick Bennett see what's developing in the Bend photography room.

Working on the Bend this year has been a hard but especially enjoyable task. We have had the job of keeping up on news made by the active students of WBHS. By presenting a complete and unique arrangement of pictures, headlines, and copy we have tried to produce a Bend which contains the highlights of the '58-'59 school year.

After getting acquainted with the tasks of editing, Co-editors Judy Nehrbass, Barb Eklo, and Charlotte Frankow really worked to their utmost. Much free time was spent in planning, organizing, designing, writing stories, and thinking of original heads and captions, in addition to chasing VIP's, photographers and copy-writers. Somehow we always managed to make the deadlines, though.

The co-operation of staff members helped to make possible the success of this year's publication. The aid they gave indexing pictures, identifying people, writing stories, and typing copy was invaluable.

Special acknowledgement is also attributable to Advertising Manager Nancy Bales and Business Manager Carl Schmidt for their indispensable assistance in keeping us out of debt, and to Mr. Baxter, Mr. Benson, and Miss Krepsky, our very helpful advisors.

This year students at West Bend High School could hardly recognize the school paper, the Clipper, due to all the changes that were made. The editors used three columns instead of the traditional two columns and eliminated the book-like appearance. Headlines were no longer typed in; photographs and stencils were used. The columnists and feature writers introduced many new and interesting columns, "The Lamb," "On Your Toes," "Peeps From Pete," "Jaunts With Judy," "Babyography," and "Book Corner," to mention a few.

Jane Meister and Joan Race headed the publication and were also responsible for the food for thought in "Voice of the Editor." Kay Mayo as feature editor and Patti Bart as assistant feature editor provided information about WBHS students in the "Who's Who" column. Kay also advised the lovelorn in "The Mayo Clinic," and Patti wrote the "Fads and Fashion" column describing all the new and popular fashions during the year.

Geoffrey Hoy headed the sports department, furnishing interesting information on sport personalities, intramurals, and all other athletic activities.

The columnists, consisting of Jim Holt, Mike Johnson, Judy Nehrass, Barbara Eklo, and Marilyn Pederson, provided interesting information. Jim and Mike wrote "The Lamb," a humorous criticism of school life. Judy, Barbara, and Marilyn wrote poems, jokes, and other interesting highlights in their columns.

As art editor Susie Weinert was kept very busy with the art work, while Nancy Bales, photo editor, saw to it that the paper had its fair share of photos. Anne Bauer, Barbara Sauer, Stefanie Reseburg, and Sue Classey had the important job of typing. Beverly Oelhafen was in charge of circulation, and Judy Schleif, correspondence manager, sent the Clipper to various schools. Mrs. Williams was the editorial advisor, and her journalism class again did the reporting. Mr. Sommers printed the paper this year.

DEBATE --- Promising State Champs

During the 1958 season, the varsity squad members won first place in nine of the twelve tournaments and placed second in the other three.

This year the fine debating by the teams resulted in winning the Little Ten Trophy, the Merrill Chamber of Commerce Trophy, the La Crosse State Teachers College Trophy, and finally the Wisconsin Forensic Trophy. In the final two-day tournament at Madison, the West Bend speakers by their win also qualified for the second time for the National Forensic League Tournament to be held at Miami, Florida, June 23-26.

This year sixty debaters from all the four high school classes participated in 360 debates. The fine record established by the debaters under the guidance of Coach Bruce Bertram is one of which he can be justly proud. Next year four of the state champions will return.

The Little Ten Champions were Bruce Berkholtz, Tom Simester, Mike Johnson, and Leon Goska. The State Champions were Jim Holt, Judy Nimtz, Steve Werner, and Mandy Lou Weikum.

FORENSICS ---

Many Hold "A" Ratings

The 1959 forensic season began with approximately one hundred-fifty students participating. The various departments of forensics are serious declamation, humorous declamation, original oratory, non-original oratory, extemporaneous reading, extemporaneous speaking, four-minute speech, interpretative reading, and play reading. After weeks of practice an inter-school contest was held to select school representatives.

From these contests, the following students were selected to represent West Bend in the freshman-sophomore Little Ten Contest which was held at Beaver Dam: Sue Grundahl, Carmen Conjurski, Sue Bradley, Ruth Wegener, Ilona Marton, Errol Reksten, Leon Goska, Mark Justl, Lee Ann Puestow, James Pischke, Cheri Roberts, Paul Fisher, Meredith Brown, Toni Kasten, Judy Mueller, Jeanne Hammes, Sandy Lapp, Janyce Willkomm, Mary Finch, and Jane Bauer.

Chosen to represent West Bend in the all-school Little Ten Contest which was held at West Bend were: Laurie Dunlop, June Schultz, Jeanne M. Weiss, Sue Anderson, Meredith Brown, Ilona Marton, John Reksten, Judy Ryan, Pat Kenny, Sue Bradley, Dick Faircloth, John Tollack, Jim Barber, Noreen Bohn, Sally Stanfield, Sandy Lapp, Jeanne Hammes, Virginia O'Meara, Beth O'Meara, Sharon Oelhafen, and Leon Goska. Eleven from this group received "A"s and therefore qualified for the District Contest held at Cedarburg.

On April 25, several of these students traveled to Madison for the State Forensic Contest.

The forensic program is directed by Miss Frandsen, and to her and her assistants, Mrs. Hansen, Miss Hallwachs, Miss Hegbar, Miss Birkholz, Mr. Sommers, Mr. Hahn, Mr. Hafemann, Mrs. Williams, Miss Podruch, Mr. Freeman, and Miss Krepsky goes the credit for a successful season.

Seated --- Sue Bradley, Dee Dee Brown, Anne Williams, Ilona Marton, Judy Ryan, Laurie Dunlop.

Mrs. Williams coaches Pat Kenny for the state contest.

THE WBHS BAND AT ITS BEST

Mr. Shlimovitz, director, prepares to run through a new band number.

Often during the first period on a bright autumn morning students looking out of the south windows could see the West Bend High School band members drilling away on the football field, perfecting their marching, their formations, and their playing that everyone expects at the football games. The band members did a good job, too, for the fans were well entertained by the performances at the home games. Besides the regular performances at the beginning of each game, several special half-time shows were given. The faculty and personnel of the school were set to music, the chemise style was portrayed in formations, and the students of West Bend High School participated in a hula hoop jamboree.

In the beautiful new band room West Bend High School band members spent many hours practicing songs for the Christmas concert.

The swing band also put in hours of drilling on Monday nights to play for several of the dances in the YAC, while the pep band's snappy music was appreciated at the pep-meetings and at the basketball games.

Mr. Shlimovitz demonstrates the new band filing system to Bonnie Lynn.

Mr. Shlimovitz helps Kathy Schneider at a weekly lesson while Marie Bock awaits her turn.

Kathye Coughlin and Charlotte Frankow hold a salute for the National Anthem.

A hula hoop contest was held for a half-time performance.

In the band solo and ensemble program the students, in addition to earning points toward awards, gained poise and confidence by playing for various clubs in town and at open house.

During the year the band divided into sections and under section leaders practiced after school to polish up the rough spots. Individual lessons given weekly by Mr. Shlimovitz helped the band perfect its playing.

As March 15, the concert date, grew near, every new practice room was filled with hard-working students. Because of a heavy snow storm, however, the concert was postponed to the following Saturday night, March 21. The number, "March Chalumeau," began the enjoyable program; followed by "Stadella," "Humoresque," "Marriage of Figaro," "United America," "Under the Double Eagle," and "Cheerio."

On April 15 the band traveled to Revus High School in Chicago, where they played a concert for the entire student body. In addition to the concert numbers in the March 15 performance, a sax trio: Judy Nehrbass, LaVern Beder, and Errol Reksten played "Southern Fantasy." With the auditorium darkened "Glow Worm" was also featured. Shadow boxes of musical notes were lit to correspond with the various sections of the band playing different passages.

To realize the importance of team work and co-operation, to recognize and appreciate good music, and to learn to express oneself on an instrument are the achievements each band member hopes to attain. To quote Mr. Shlimovitz, "It is not what one individual does for the band, but what the band does for the individual."

Leading the marching band are: Majorettes Kathy Coughlin, Rosemary Frankow, Judy Schleif, Mandy Lou Weikum, and Drum Majorette Charlotte Frankow.

Kathy Coughlin leads the WBHS band down Main Street for the Memorial Day parade.

CHORAL GROUPS IN HARMONY

The Choral Department of W.B.H.S. again had an enjoyable year under the helpful hand of Mr. Cupery. About 300 students participated in the A Cappella Chorus, mixed ensemble, Freshmen Boys' Glee Club, Sophomore Girls' Glee Club, and Junior Girls' Glee Club.

All of the choruses participated in the Christmas and Spring Concerts, while smaller groups performed for the student body and community organizations. At Fond du Lac, on November 17, the mixed ensemble of West Bend and choruses of the surrounding schools, numbering about 700, had the privilege of singing under the direction of Don Craig. Judy Nehrbass and Jim Barber were chosen to attend a music clinic in Madison, on January 12, for three days.

One of the most memorable and enjoyable events of the season was the presentation of Irving Berlin's musical comedy, "Annie Get You Gun," under the direction of Mr. Cupery on March 3, 4, and 5. Our thanks again go to the community orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Schleif, to Joel Cook, stage setting director, and to Mrs. Polly Flieman, dance director.

Mr. S. J. Cupery, choral director of the music department.

Judy Nehrbass, Wallace Tews, Jill Gosewehr, and Paul Henke go over some songs in the new chorus room.

FOR '59---"ANNIE GET YOUR GUN"

Pat Hetzel, Sally Stanfield, Judy Ryan, Judy Maxon, Kay Pleshek, June Schultz, and Sharon Frank are in a daze over Frank (Jim Barber) as he sings, "I'm a Bad, Bad Man."

Charlie (Wallace Tews) argues with Dolly (Barb Eklo) while Winnie (Annie Geib) looks on.

Everyone whoops it up in anticipation of the big show coming to town.

Chief Sitting Bull (John Lay) and his tribe have a ceremony making Annie (Laurie Dunlop) an Indian.

Annie Oakley (Laurie Dunlop) relaxes dreamily on Frank Butler's (Jim Barber) shoulder while he sings "The Girl That I Marry."

Winnie (Annie Geib) and Tommy (Tom Weber) sing "Who Do You Love I Hope" in the ballroom scene.

COMMUNITY ORCHESTRA HAS TALENT

Mr. David Schleif, orchestra director.

The annual Christmas concert was one of the highlights of the year.

This is the second year that the high school orchestra has performed as an organized unit. Mr. David Schleif, the organizer and director, has devoted much time, hard work, and patience toward getting this musical body to function smoothly.

The orchestra consists of a string section which rehearses four times weekly. The section is joined once a week by another group of brass, reed, and percussion instruments from the high school band.

Mr. Schleif has been able to forge his orchestra into a fine musical group, which has performed in numerous events, chief among them was the summer concert which was held at the McLane School in August. It was well attended and helped to raise funds to send three students to the summer music clinic at the University of Wisconsin at Madison. Mr. Schleif and the orchestra have worked hard to earn money to send these students to the clinic. At Christmas time, the members sold fruit cakes and thereby were able to raise some funds.

The annual Christmas concert was conducted in co-operation with the various choral clubs and the high school band. At this time the orchestra performed by playing some difficult classical numbers. A bit on the lighter side was the playing of the musical scores from "Annie Get Your Gun," the musical comedy staged by the choral group of West Bend High School. The orchestra certainly added a professional touch to the musical.

Besides the aforementioned appearance, the orchestra has also given small concerts for various local organizations, among these being the Kiwanis Club and the Loyal Order of Moose.

When school closes in June, the orchestra will reconvene, after a short vacation, and build a repertoire of music which they will use in the Summer Pops Concert.

THREE ONE-ACT PLAYS . . .

"Brothers in Arms"

"Summons of Sariel"

"The Clod"

The presentation of three one-act plays on October 17 and October 18 displayed the increasing interest in participation and enjoyment of dramatics in West Bend High School.

"Brothers-in-Arms," a comedy directed by Miss Birkholz, revolves around a predicament in which Altheus Browne, played by Pat Kenny, stands to lose a large sum of money if he fails to catch a certain train. Bob Guse as Charlie Henderson attempts to help him. Amid the humorous situations which arose, fine performances were given by Sally Stanfield and Errol Reksten.

A note of fantasy was provided by the "Summons of Sariel," which Mr. Hafemann directed. Jeanne Weiss, the graduate who was hit by a bus, is waiting in the anti-chamber of God to find out whether she will enter eternity or will go back to time. Her fate is discussed by Jane Meister, the clay, and Gloria Willkomm, the spirit. Carol Birr, Judy Maxon, Chris O'Meara, Susan Anderson, and Susan Grundahl, along with the graduate, all await the summons of Sariel, played by June Schultz.

The tragedy, "The Clod," was an outstanding production concerning Civil War days. It centers around the search for a northern soldier, played by Tom Haebig, who has sought refuge at the farm of Thaddeus and Mary Trask, played by Bill Burckhardt and Ann Gonring. Dick Faircloth and Tom Albrecht are the southern soldiers conducting the search.

"The Clod" was entered in the district, sectional, and state dramatic contests and received an "A" rating at all three. Mr. Freeman, the director, and his cast are to be commended for their success.

June Schultz and Jeanne M. Weiss go through their lines in "The Summons of Sariel."

ALL-SCHOOL PLAY --- "R. U. R."

Tom Albrecht, Paul Dickmann, Don Winninghoff, and Jim Hron are all ardent fans of Margie Utech in R. U. R.

The all-school play, R. U. R., written by Karel Capek, was presented on January 2nd and 3rd. It was directed by Mr. Hafemann.

The setting of the play is an island upon which is located the central office of the factory of Russum's Universal Robots. When the play opens, a few decades beyond the present day, the factory has already turned out millions of manufactured workmen --- living automats without souls, desires, or feelings.

When Helena Glory (Margie Utech), president of the Humanitarian League, wants to improve the condition of the robots, Harry Domin (Don Winninghoff), the general manager, captures her heart. Due to Helena's desire to have the robots more like human beings, Dr. Gall (Paul Dickmann) secretly changes the formula and partially humanizes a few hundred. As a result, a world revolt of robots is under way.

The rest of the play is a magnificent melodrama, with only a handful of human beings, while the unseen masses of their own robots close in on them.

Following the third act is the epilogue in which Alquist (Jim Hron) is the only human being left on earth. He discovers two humanized robots, a man and a woman who have a bit of Adam and Eve in them. Mankind is about to start afresh. Nature has won out after all.

Other members of the student body who took part were: Bob Guse (Consul Busman); Tom Albrecht (Dr. Hallemeier); Clyde Allen (Mr. Fabry); Sue Gosewehr (Nana); Mary Nicholson (Sulla); Bernie Koenig (Marius); Dale Schmidt (Radius); Nancy Bales (Helena); Carl Bohn (Primus); Carol Pick (a servant); Mark Justl (1st robot); and Wesley Zastrow (2nd robot).

While Carl Bohn and Nancy Bales are arguing, Jim Hron sleeps soundly.

"YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU"

Seated --- Madeleine Brandenburg, Jane Meister, Carol Liermann, Barb Eklo, Judy Nehrbass, Carol Pick.

Standing --- Susie Weinert, Tom Haebig, Jim Hron, Roman Kohler, Dick Faircloth, Clyde Allen, John Lay, Pat Kenny, Carl Schmidt, Bob Guse, Sally Laycock, Director Mr. Freeman, Nancy Bales.

As the winter snow finally began to disappear, the seniors began work on their annual class play. This year a lively comedy entitled "You Can't Take It With You" was presented under the direction of Mr. Freeman and produced by Mr. Hafemann.

As the play opens, we get our first glimpse of the strange life led by the Sycamore family. Each member of the house spends the entire day working hard at his separate tasks. Penny Sycamore (Madeleine Brandenburg) writes plays on a typewriter that had been delivered by mistake eight years ago, while her husband Paul (Jerry Hoffmann) and the ice-man, Mr. DePinna (Bob Guse), spend the day in the cellar making fireworks. Essie Carmichael practices her ballet while her husband Ed plays the guitar. Essie and Ed were played by Barbara Eklo and John Lay. Old Grandpa Vanderhof (Mike Manning) when not collecting snakes or going to commencements, sits in his big chair with the newspaper. The only normal person in the family is Alice Sycamore (Carol Liermann) who spends her days at the office of Kirby & Son, where she falls in love with Tony Kirby, Jr. (Dick Faircloth), the son of the boss.

The young couple is happy and plan to be married, until in the second act Tony brings his mother and father to the Sycamores for dinner a night too early. Mr. and Mrs. Kirby were played by Pat Kenny and Judy Nehrbass. Here, the two completely different ways of life clash in a scene of tragic humor. The Kirbys try hard to rise above the situation, but when the house is raided, and they are all thrown in jail, the marriage seems hopeless.

As the curtain opens on the third act, Alice is preparing to take a trip. Even though Tony tries to convince her that all is not lost, she still is determined.

About this time Tony's father enters the scene again, and after a long talk with Grandpa and Tony, realizes his mistake in trying to push his son into the business. He learns the first lesson in relaxing as they all sit down to a typical Sycamore dinner prepared by the Grand Duchess Katrina, played by Nancy Bales.

Other members of the cast were Jane Meister (Rheba), Jim Hron (Donald), Tom Haebig (Henderson), Carl Schmidt (Boris Kolenkhov), Gloria Willkomm (Gay Wellington), and Roman Kohler, Clyde Allen, and Dale Schmidt who appeared as three police officers. Sally Laycock acted as stage manager while Nancy Bales and Sue Weinert did their part as prompters.

"Oh, we were just spending a quiet evening at home."

"SHINE ON HARVEST MOON"

Homecoming, this year, was a colorful and joyous affair. The parade with its gayly colored floats, the bonfire, the game where our team was the victor, and the dance all made the 1958 homecoming a success.

On Wednesday the traditional "toothpick" hunt opened the celebration with Bill Neumann finding the much sought after red and white colors. On Thursday he was awarded the honor of crowning the queen and then lighting the bonfire.

As usual, the parade was one of the most popular events of homecoming as it passed through the main streets of town. For safety purposes, the annual pep rally and bonfire were held at Regner Park where Judge Milton L. Meister addressed the gathering.

Finally, after speeches and cheers, the moment all had been waiting for arrived, and Bill Neumann placed the royal crown upon the head of Laurie Dunlop. The queen's court consisted of senior Merrie Heil, sophomore Kathy Eklo, and freshman Mary Lauson.

On Friday the much-awaited game with Berlin took place. As we had been prepared and armed with our best players and guards, we chalked up a 3 to 0 victory!

Believe it or not, these students are looking for the toothpick.

But, Mike, you'll have to wait your turn.

This clever float won first prize for Mr. Runge's homeroom.

APPROPRIATE HOMECOMING THEME

The homecoming court included: Merrie Heil, Queen Laurie Dunlop, Kathy Eklo, and Mary Lauson.

As usual, the traditional outhouse topped the bonfire.

One of the most impressive sights was the bonfire reflecting on the City Park pond.

Bill Neumann, winner of the toothpick hunt, strikes the match for our bonfire.

A Hula Hoop Jamboree was the featured event of the half-time ceremonies at the homecoming game, when a group of enthusiastic individuals displayed their prowess with hula hoops.

A dance concluded the festivities of homecoming. The theme "Shine on Harvest Moon" was appropriately carried out in fall colors. Autumn leaves, corn shocks, and pumpkins turned the McLane gymnasium into a colorful setting.

After the grand march of the queen and her royal court, the results of the float and window contests were announced. Mr. Runge's homeroom won first place honors for their float with "We're Expecting A Victory," while Mr. Panfil's homeroom won first place for their clever window, "We'll Bowlus A Victory." Miss Birkholz and Mr. Schuelke took second and third place prizes for their homeroom floats, as did Miss Podruch and Mr. Moen for their homeroom windows.

With the beautiful music of the Top Hatters drifting across the floor, the 1958 homecoming celebration came to a close.

“MIYAKO ODORI” (Japanese Cherry)

Entering through the pagodas of McLane School gym, we find ourselves in an oriental paradise across the Pacific Ocean. “Miyako Odori” which means Japanese Spring Dance, was the theme for this romantic evening of Japanese atmosphere on April 11, 1958.

The prom, the final one to be held in the McLane gym, featured beautiful decorations with cherry trees in full bloom under a ceiling of greenish hue. From the center of the ceiling hung a large Japanese lantern decorated with flowering wistaria which swayed at the slightest touch of a breeze. The stage, transformed into a gaily-decorated teahouse, served as an ideal setting for the Top Hatters who provided music for dancing. In the distance mountain scenery created a realistic oriental atmosphere.

The grand march was the highlight of the evening. Reigning over the event were King Pat Kenny and his Queen, Charlotte Frankow. The Royal Couple was crowned by last year's royalty, John Indermuehle and Joan Ackerman. The Court of Honor included: Barbara Eklo and Tom Bast, Barbara Fuge and Tom Haebig, Merrie Heil and Bob Guse, Judy Maxon and Dick Faircloth, Mary Jo Thompson and Jerry Wardius, Gloria Willkomm and Carl Schmidt. As one left the pagodas, “Miyako Odori” was an evening to remember.

- - - '58 PROM Blossom Dance)

From the Japanese atmosphere, the prom-goers entered into an enchanting Hawaiian setting. The theme of the post-prom at the high school gym was "Isle of Golden Dreams." Entering the gym, couples were adorned with a beautiful Hawaiian lei by lovely island girls. Other decorations of this eventful evening included carbaret style tables, palm trees, tropical flowers and plants, all set around a ceiling of huge pastel leis. Entertainment was provided by the Borsee Theatrical Agency. Later in the evening refreshments were served by the parents. Prizes were given to winners of dance contests and stage performances which brought the truly wonderful evening to a close.

"SLEIGH RIDE" HELD IN YAC

The true spirit of Christmas reigned amidst the glitter and soft lights of the Midwinter formal, which was attended by a record-breaking crowd of alumni and students. Enhancing the joyous festivities of this season, the annual formal was held on December 27th in the Youth Activity Center.

Upon entering, one was attracted to the unique decorations which were based on the theme "Sleigh Ride." In the center of the floor, set in the midst of the romantic atmosphere of olden days was a revolving Christmas tree glistening in the moonlight from the reflection of two spotlights. In the setting of a candlelit cafe, couples whirled to the smooth music of the Top Hatters. The beautiful decorations consisted of miniature sleighs and snowflakes floating on the walls; and off to one side stood an authentic, antique sleigh where couples could have their pictures taken. Also, since the "way to a man's heart is through his stomach," refreshments, including punch and cookies, were served. The fine co-operation and spirit of enthusiasm of the A Cappella Choir, sponsors for the event, was certainly evident. Barb Fuge and Judy Nehrbass were co-chairmen for the occasion.

Mr. Cupery, director of the A Cappella Choir, and his lovely wife were the chaperones for this gala affair.

Gary Koehn and Barb Eklo take time out for a "sleigh ride."

Couples entering the YAC, found it gaily decorated in winter style theme.

As the evening grows late, some find "sitting one out" a good cure for aching feet.

SENIORS MAKE PERFECT BUMS!

Hobo couples George Hess and Anne Bauer, Paul Land and Clyde Allen, Tom Bast and Susie Umbs entertained underclassmen as they displayed their costumes.

It has been a tradition at West Bend High School to have a Hobo Hop, a dance at which the seniors dress as hoboes and bums. This year the annual Hobo Hop was held at the YAC on Friday, February 13 --- an appropriate day for the affair.

The dance was attended by approximately 75 "bums." Also in attendance was a large number of underclassmen. Music was provided by Mr. Shlimovitz and his school Swing Band.

During the evening there was a grand march of all the hoboes, and a group of juniors acting as judges chose Ann Geib and Paul Land as Queen and King. Ann and Paul were both dressed as old maid school teachers.

As the evening progressed, the seniors grouped together in the middle of the floor to sing a few of the traditional WBHS songs. They concluded this event with the singing of the school song and the Alma Mater.

NHS MEMBERS: Front Row --- J. Schleif, M. Pederson, N. Bales, J. Race, P. Bart.
Second Row --- J. Schickert, B. Eklo, J. Liesener, B. Fuge, D. Zaichek, M. Gehl, S. Anderson, N. Frank.
Back Row --- T. Simester, C. Schmidt, J. Lay, J. Klein, J. Holt, B. Neumann, S. Werner, J. Nehrbass. Not Pictured --- B. Berkholtz, G. Hoy, C. Frankow.

Scholarship, character, leadership, and service --- these are the qualifications which lead to election to the National Honor Society, the highest honor that students of West Bend High School can attain. Although any junior or senior with a B average is eligible for admission, the society requires that a balance of these four characteristics be found in its members.

This year only one initiation was held, and officers were chosen for a term of one year. They were as follows: Carl Schmidt, president; Bruce Berkholtz, vice-president; Charlotte Frankow, secretary; and Judy Nehrbass, treasurer.

Because of the high degree of selectivity which characterizes the NHS, only nine members were admitted last year from the Class of '59: Nancy Bales, Bruce Berkholtz, Charlotte Frankow, Mary Gehl, Judy Liesener, Judy Nehrbass, Marilyn Pederson, Joan Race, and Carl Schmidt.

At this year's initiation ceremony, held in February, fifteen members were brought into the society. Seniors were: Patti Bart, Barbara Eklo, Barbara Fuge, John Lay, Joanne Schickert, Judy Schleif, Tom Simester, and Dana Zaichek. Juniors initiated were: Sue Anderson, Nancy Frank, Jim Holt, Jeff Hoy, John Klein, Bill Neumann, and Steve Werner.

The society was assisted by a capable committee of faculty advisors headed by Mr. Freeman.

New NHS members solemnly await their formal initiation.

Mr. Schultz congratulates Dana Zaichek on her new membership into NHS.

BADGER STATE --- Education In Government

Representatives to Badger Girls' State were Joan Race and Merrie Heil.

Jim Britton, Tom Bast, John Lay, Pat Kenny, and Clyde Allen were our representatives to Boys' State.

Though bags were packed and ready to go, we managed another round of "goodbyes."

Getting up early Saturday morning on June 14, Clyde Allen, Tom Bast, Jim Britton, Pat Kenny, and John Lay, who were chosen for Badger Boys' State, got under way for Ripon College at Ripon, Wisconsin.

The week was one of the busiest in the year for the boys. Each morning they attended the class of their choice, and then put to practice what they had learned. The afternoon was reserved for sports and band and chorus rehearsals. Highlighting the events was the evening program. Every night the boys gathered in the gymnasium where they would chat back and forth over slogans and the names of their candidates. John Lay was elected county supervisor and Pat Kenny was a candidate for the Supreme Court. The week slipped by much too quickly for all, but the experience was certainly gratifying.

Four days later Merrie Heil and Joan Race, the WBHS representatives to Badger Girls' State, arrived at the University of Wisconsin campus in Madison. Merrie represented the West Bend Chapter of the American Legion Auxiliary and Joan the chapter in Jackson.

Some of the memorable highlights of the week included the legislative sessions in the state capitol, the tour of the capitol building, the address of Governor Thomson, the inauguration ceremony with an address from the governor of Badger Boys' State, talent night, the tour of the University of Wisconsin campus, and the mock jury trial.

Band and chorus rehearsals took the very few spare minutes which were available throughout the session. Between all these activities and making new friends, the 347 girls attended meetings, lectures, discussions, and elections.

The girls learned the function and purposes of the city, county, and state governments and then had a chance to practice what they had learned when they conducted their own city council, county board, and state senate and assembly meetings. They realized that everything during the week had been designed to prepare them to undertake the responsibilities of future citizens.

All the representatives led an active but enjoyable life while they were at Badger State. Most of the students felt that the time to say good-bye to their new friends and to their various Badger State experiences came all too soon.

CHEERLEADERS BRING

"A" TEAM CHEERLEADERS --- Anne Bauer, Jill Gosewehr, Mary Jane Knoebel, Barb Eklo, Sally Stanfield. Judy Maxon not pictured.

School spirit was given an extra boost this year due to the leadership of the perky cheerleaders and the enthusiasm of the pep club. Under the direction of Miss Fogtman, the cheerleading squads learned many new yells. The pep club with Mrs. Justman's assistance was taught the cheers and then helped other students to learn them at pep meetings.

Lively skits spiced our pep assemblies this year. One unusual one included "cheerleaders from other lands." Barb "Igloo" from Alaska, and "Comrade" Max from Russia were two of the peppy foreigners.

With the solid backing that our teams have, it is evident that we are aiming for a victorious future. It is because of this goal that the position of being a cheerleader is not only important but also an honor.

What would football be without a "Fight Song" from the Cheerleaders?

WBHS BADGERS . . .

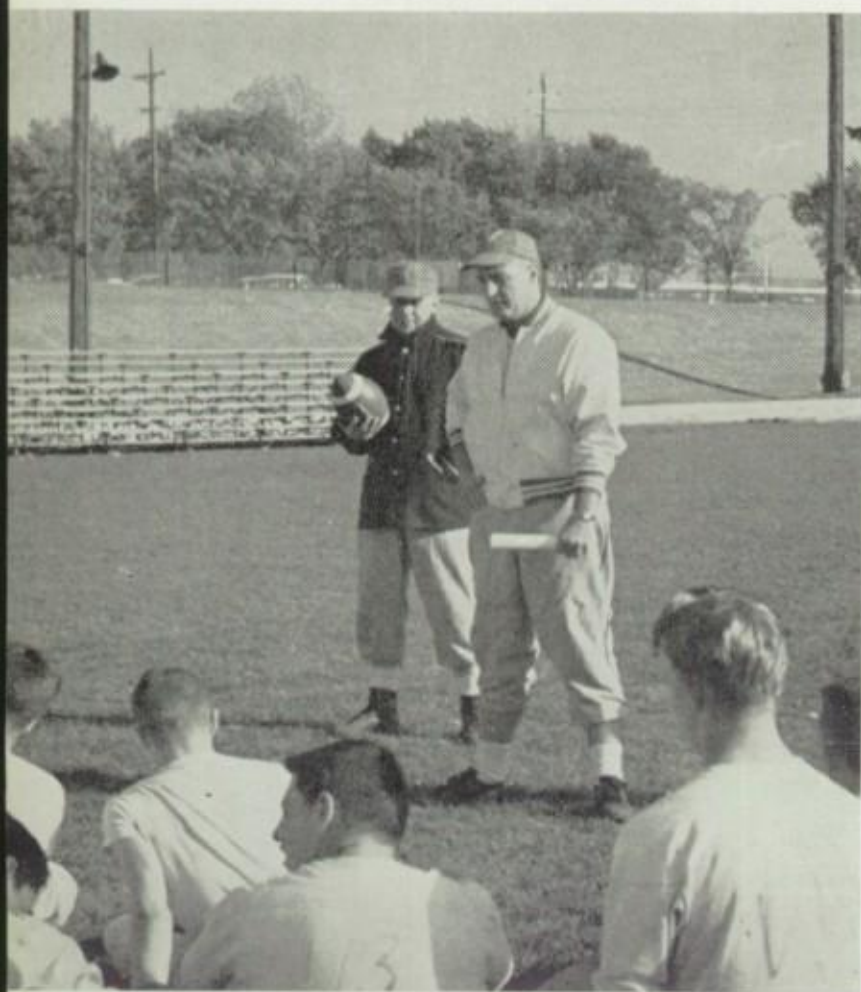

Co-Champs With Cooney

This year's championship football team featured a powerful line and hard running backs. The team's greatest asset, however, was its stone wall defense. The Badger goal line was crossed but three times in the entire season. The Badgers won all seven conference games but had to settle for a tie with Oconomowoc, when the Coon's also posted a 7 to 0 record.

Under the direction of Coach Warren Bowlus the powerful Badgers dismantled opponents one after another. After losing to Port, 14-7, the Badgers clobbered Mayville 38-14 and annihilated Columbus 33-0. The Badgers then traveled to Ripon, where they escaped with a 7-0 win over a homecoming-inspired Tiger team. Next the Badgers subdued Waupun 38-6 for a fine Dad's Night performance.

The Berlin game was a defensive duel, but the Badgers squeezed out a 3-0 victory on the strength of Dave Gonring's field goal. The team then turned in its finest performance of the season in its Homecoming game against Beaver Dam. The inspired Badgers held the opponents in the first half and broke their backs on the plays of the second half by sending Bob Stoffel out on a double reverse. After that, the tide turned, and the team ran up a 20-0 margin for insurance.

The Badgers then tagged arch-rival Hartford 32-0 for the clincher, the first conference title in eight years. The '58 season was a complete success, the result of a lot of hard practice and a fighting spirit that never failed.

BASKETBALL --- STIFF COMPETITION

As the season started, the prospects of having a good basketball team at West Bend High were exceedingly low, almost depressing. Returning from the '58 championship squad were guards Jack Zallaps and Bill King. Everyone else was without varsity experience except a few.

Then, the first game raised a question as to the futility of the team's efforts. By dumping Mukwonago, the Badgers brought a ray of hope to the questioning minds of the West Bend fans. This ray was short-lived, however, as the inexperienced varsity dropped the next two in a row before squelching Columbus in the first conference game.

At this point the Badger cagers ran into a combination of tough competition and tough luck. Free throws failed to go in and Berlin won 52 to 47. A Badger scoring lapse in the final period gave Beaver Dam a victory, 60-52. Mayville outlasted West Bend in a scoring battle 75-65. Realizing that they could no longer fall back on the excuse that they were inexperienced, the much-improved Badgers beat Hartford 51-46. A WB zone press almost beat conference leading Oconomowoc, but Cooney won, 58-56. After losing another close game to Ripon, the enraged Badgers tore through Waupun and Horicon. The WB's lost the final conference game to Hartford, ending the season with a 4-6 record. Awakened by their loss to Hartford, the Badgers bounced back the next evening to upset New Holstein that had earned honorable mention in the Big 16.

In personal statistics, Jack Zallaps took the most shots, 256, made the most shots, 81, and tallied the most points, 196. Bernie Spaeth had the highest shooting percentage, 38%. He also attempted the most free throws, 54, made the most free throws, 37, and had the highest free throw percentage, 70%. Gene Beimborn led the team with 238 rebounds, and also out-did his team-mates by acquiring 50 personal fouls.

Although Coach Jack Weier's final season as coach ended with a 4-6 record, in his six years of coaching his teams posted a 36-24 conference record and one Little Ten Championship in 1958.

'58 TRACK TEAM TAKES

The 1958 Badger track team began workouts before the snow was off the ground. These workouts to attain top physical condition for the first track meet were held in the "dungeon," an unfinished part of the 1958 addition. Here the track team led by Coach Strohacker could work undisturbed.

At the Madison West Relays, starting the season, West Bend placed twelfth out of twenty-five participating schools. Following this fine start, Benders went on to win over Watertown, Fond du Lac, and Nicolet in dual meets as well as placing a third in the Port Relays. Taking a second at the Little Ten, the Badgers finished behind Cooney. Tony Spaeth, with a second in the shot and firsts in the high jump and discus, became a co-winner of the Dillingoski Award, making West Bend a winner or co-winner of the award for the last four years.

Four boys participated in the last meet of the year, the state meet, namely: Tony Spaeth, Bill King, Willie Rusch, and Jerome Fechter.

This year three school records were broken: the pole vault, shot put, and 220-yard dash. John Claybaugh set a new pole vault record at 11 feet, 7 inches. Willie Rusch put the shot 50 feet, 3.5 inches for a new record, and Bill King set a new 220-yard dash record of 22.5 seconds. These are outstanding performances.

The track team hopes to have a better 1959 season due to the promise shown by such veterans as Bob Cooley, Bill King, Paul Fisher, Jerome Keding, Jim Charlton, Ronald Diels, Curt Kissinger, and John Kreilkamp. These boys have been helped by our managers and fine coaches: Mr. Strohacker, Mr. Caldwell, and Mr. Cross.

CROSS COUNTRY --- 2nd IN LITTLE TEN

"Best, but second, in the Little Ten." This is the fond but peculiar memory 42 harriers carry with them as the 1958 Cross Country season recedes slowly into West Bend High School history. Coach Cross did a commendable job in his first year as head coach in preparing one of West Bend High's finest cross country teams.

The Badger team, running on a new home course because of the completion of the new addition, earned recognition among other schools as a dangerous team. They lost to Hartford in the opener, but bounced back to clobber both Beaver Dam and Berlin at Beaver Dam and also defeated Oconomowoc here at West Bend. The harriers captured third place in the rugged Hartford invitational, Tom Schowalter taking sixth place. Later they earned sixth in an even rougher Waukesha invitational. In a real display of power, the Badgers beat Marquette, the Milwaukee conference champs, proving themselves to be a great team. Oconomowoc won the Little Ten Conference Meet, beating second place West Bend by a meager seven points. Tom Schowalter came through with a fine performance, and captured third place honors. West Bend took a fifth place in the state meet (class M) at Hartford, beating Oconomowoc by over one hundred points. Tom Schowalter placed seventh in this meet which showed West Bend's Little Ten superiority.

There will be four lettermen returning, namely Tom Schowalter, Lyndon Rich, Jerry Hoeft, and Jim Holt, along with some very promising "B" team runners.

TENNIS TEAM --- Russ Roecker, Bill Wiedmeyer, John Herlin, Bernie Stern, Tom Mehring, and Dick Baumer, the Little Ten Champs.

TENNIS TEAM VICTORIOUS

"Beat me, will ya!" says last year's player, John Herlin.

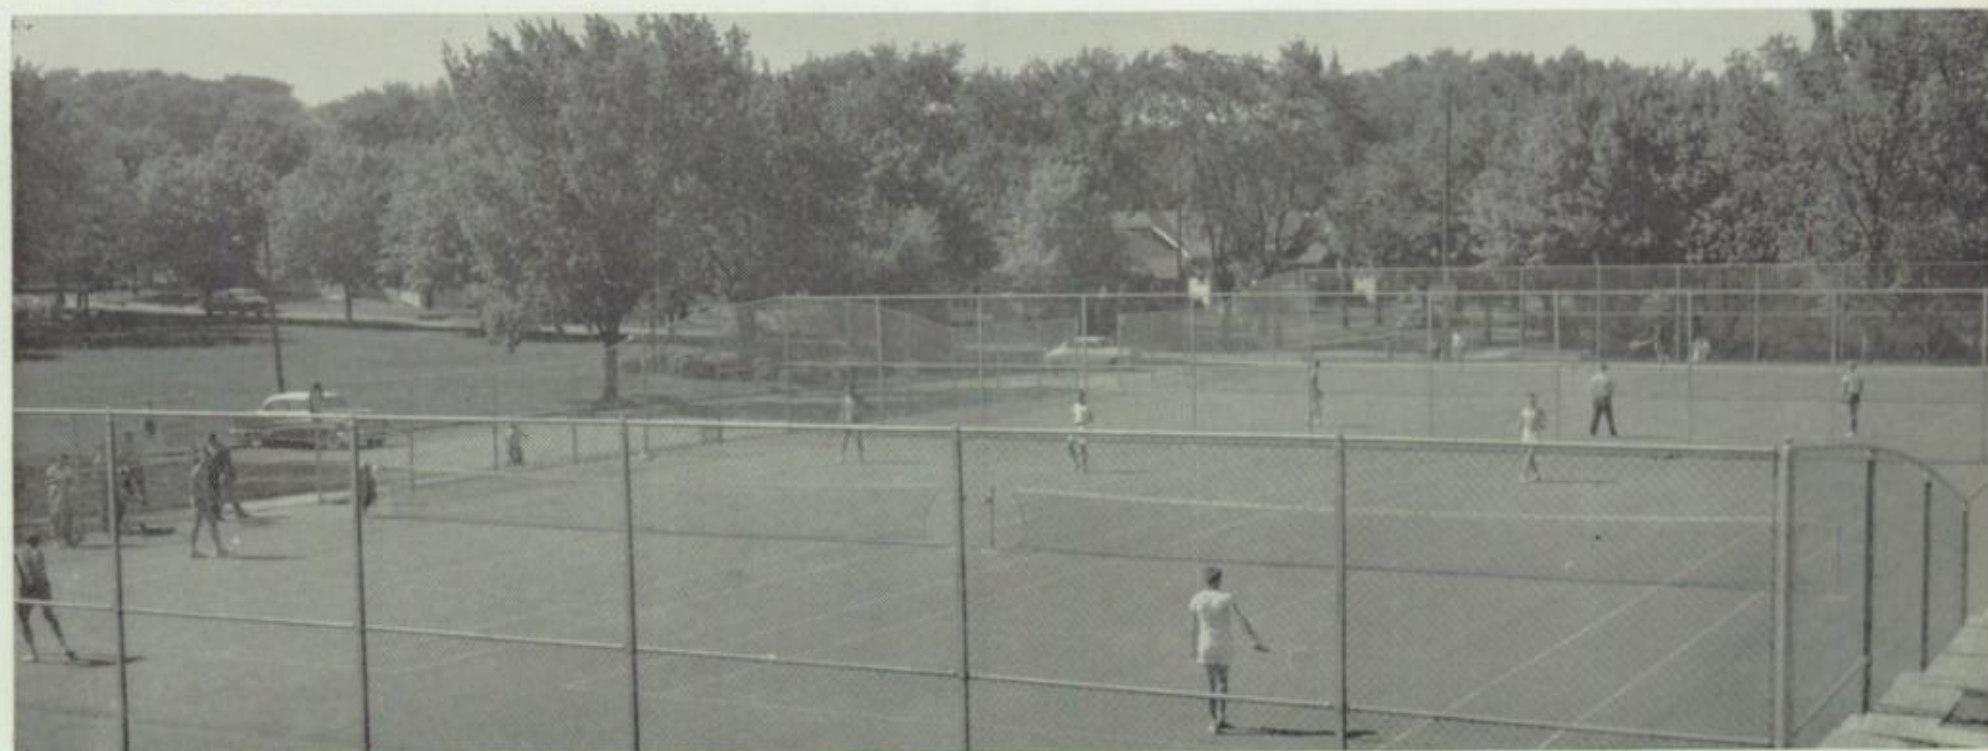

When agreeable spring weather rolled around, the '58 tennis squad was able to use the new tennis courts that were completed before the construction of the new addition.

With only two lettermen returning, Russ Roecker and John Herlin, Coach Hildebrand had an inexperienced squad. The "A" squad included the following: Russ Roecker, John Herlin, Bernie Stern, Steve Roecker, Dick Baumer, Tom Mehring, Bill Wiedmeyer, and Leigh Collins.

Upon moving into the '58 Little Ten Meet, all the boys participating lasted at least through the first round. Going into the semi-finals of the meet, both doubles teams Baumer and Stern, and Mehring and Wiedmeyer, and the number one singles man, Russ Roecker, survived the competition.

The doubles teams of Baumer and Stern were runners-up in the Little Ten, and Russ Roecker also placed in the top four in the Little Ten Singles. The championship was clinched before the semi-finals had been completed. After this meet West Bend moved into one of the roughest sectional meets in the state, held at West Bend.

This fall, for the first time, Coach Hildebrand had fall tennis practice on the courts as long as the fair weather held out. During this time there was one intra-squad tournament in which Steve Roecker placed first and Claude Beck was runner-up.

The new tennis courts are in constant use.

GOLF TEAM---SECOND TO HARTFORD

West Bend's 1958 golf season was an up and down one. The team consisting of Clyde Allen, Tom Bast, Pat Kenny, and Carl Ziegler participated in five Southern Little Ten meets with Oconomowoc, Mayville, Horicon, and Hartford. The Badgers placed second twice and fourth three times in these five meets. The Badgers also participated in four dual meets of which two were won and two lost.

On May 23 the Badgers took part in the Sectional Tournament at Ripon where they ran into some real tough competition. The Badgers were outclassed and could get no better than a ninth place.

On May 26th the Little Ten Golf Tournament was held at Hartford. There the Badgers improved their showing and came up behind Hartford with a second place. This was a major accomplishment for the underdog Badgers.

During the spring the members of the "B" team consisting of Jeff Baxter, Bob Bodenbach, Bob Adee, Dick Kurtz, Jim Marsden, John Lay, and Dick Hron spent long hours practicing.

With Allen, Bast, and Kenny returning this year, Coach Grignon hopes to come up with a Little Ten Championship.

Tom Heipp and Dick Harter get ready for a good practice session.

Last year's batsmen compiled a comparatively noteworthy record due to the fact that most of the team were sophomores. Of the returning lettermen for 1959, nine will be juniors and two seniors. Four lettermen graduated in June, namely Allen Christ, Dick Harter, Tom Heipp, and Willie Rusch. The returning senior lettermen will be Dave Gonring and Hilary Martin; the returning junior lettermen: Harvey Brodzeller, Stan Griesemer, Wes Griesemer, Ken Hemauer, Bill King, John Klein, Larry Lange, Mark Mayer, and Bernie Spaeth. Coach Kuss will be relying on these men to bring many victories to West Bend High School.

The 1958 baseball team played the Little Ten schedule in spring. They had a 3-3 record which was a very commendable showing for an inexperienced, young team. The record would have been better if the team had not lost the service of Captain Dick Harter early in the season due to a concussion.

The 1959 baseball team will operate on a different schedule. In 1958 the conference baseball schedule was played at the same time the track schedule was in operation. This resulted in the loss of many able players. In the 1959 season, all games, conference as well as non-conference, will be played at night during the summer. All practices will also be held at night.

The consensus of opinion places the Badgers in a favorable position for the conference if they do not have more than their share of bad breaks.

SKI TEAM AGAIN TRAVELS TO WAUSAU

Jim Britton, Dave O'Meara, Hilary Martin, Niles Sacia, Gary Koehn, and Tom O'Meara look on as Coach Strohacker points out where the team will be skiing.

Jim Britton decides to try the "snow slopes of West Bend High School" while Niles and Tom await their turns.

The West Bend High School ski team again attended the state ski meet at Wausau. After losing three ace skiers through graduation, Coach Strohacker had to fill the slots with inexperienced skiers.

The untried Badger ski team set out for Wausau bright and early on January 30. As usual, the team left a day early to become accustomed to the hill. Dave O'Meara, a veteran of the ski team was lost when he took a bad fall while practicing.

On the next day, January 31, Coach Strohacker entered five boys in the meet. Only one of them, Hilary Martin, had previously skied in competition.

The meet consisted of a downhill and a slalom race. In both events the boys skied against time. For the first time in years, all West Bend participants qualified in the meet; but because of some bad falls, the team finished seventh out of thirteen. Hilary Martin was rated the seventh best skier out of 125 competitors.

In spite of the team's relatively poor showing, Coach Strohacker feels they have matured a great deal through their experiences at Wausau and next year's prospects look promising. The team will lose only two seniors, Hilary Martin and Jim Britton. Returning to better their mark next season will be Dave O'Meara, Tom O'Meara, Gary Koehn, and Niles Sacia.

WRESTLING --- FUTURE SKILL

This year a new sport, wrestling, was added to the list of various winter activities. Enthusiasm was high, and under the direction of Coach Schermacher, also a newcomer to WBHS, the interested boys learned the various holds and all about "pins," "takedowns," and "reversals."

Since it takes some time to build up a skilled wrestling team, the outlook for victories in the 1958-59 season was bleak. However, the team did beat Granville and lost a very close match to Hartford. The matmen who won most of their matches and showed most promise were 103-pound Roger Frank and heavyweight Jack Roell.

On February 14, the team went to Ripon to participate in the Little Ten Wrestling Meet. After going through the eliminations and semi-finals, the only West Bender to pull through to the evening finals was Roger Frank. Roger again proved himself at the conference meet and was made eligible for the state meet held on February 27th.

Jack Roell gains points for his team by pinning his opponent.

NEW SPORT ADDED --- SWIMMING

Making an impressive first appearance in a new sports field was the 1958-59 swimming team headed by Coaches Bowlus, Caldwell, and Jeffrey. With no previous experience, the team concluded the season with an even 4-4 record, chalking up victories against Stevens Point, Sheboygan Central, and two against Milwaukee Lutheran.

Five of the ten pool records are held by West Bend swimmers. In the 50 yard free style, sophomore Mike Nicholson holds the record in the time of 26.4 seconds. Holding the 200 yard free style record is freshman Jack Stoltz with a time of 2:16.8. Gary Koehn, junior, holds the record in the 100-yard butterfly with the time of 1:18.1. Sophomore Steve Lass, swimming the 150-yard medley, holds the record in the time of 1:56.8. Two West Bend relay teams, one with Mark Mayer, Tom Weber, Ken Weddig, and Jack Stoltz, the other team of Mayer, Lass, Weddig, and Stoltz are tied with the record breaking time of 1:52.2 seconds.

Jack Stoltz, swimming the 400-yard free style, was the only member of the team to qualify at the Blue-J Invitational at Janesville, February 7, thus scoring the only 2 points for the West Bend team. He was also the only swimmer to qualify at the state meet held on March 1 in Waukesha. By so doing, Jack gave West Bend its only points in the meet, placing the West Bend team 13th out of 21 Wisconsin schools.

Diving competition was keen throughout the year, but Tom Weber managed to come through with 3 firsts, 1 second and 2 thirds. Tom O'Meara followed with 2 seconds and a third.

With a year of experience to back them up, the 1959-60 team is expected to exceed their fine 1958-59 record. The team will lose only two of its members, seniors Bob Cooley, back stroker and Pete Toubro whose specialty is the breast stroke.

GAA --- GOOD SPORTS

Elected in the spring of '58, this year's GAA officers were Mary Jo Thompson, president; Ann Meyer, vice-president; Gloria Willkomm, secretary; Ann Geib, treasurer; and Eileen Schiller, point-secretary. The girls took their new posts in November and GAA was again resumed after the summer months.

Members of the Girls' Athletic Association work toward earning a total of 80 points during the year. This entitles them to a "WB" letter. A number of points are given for attendance, participation, and victories.

Many activities were carried out by the GAA this year. On various Thursday nights the girls got together for a play night. Volleyball and basketball were a few of the sports enjoyed at this time.

In February they went to Keown's Corners where a memorable evening was spent roller skating. Another sport the girls participated in was bowling. Jack's Bowling Alleys were reserved every Wednesday night after school.

The '59 GAA season closed with the spring camping trip. The girls went to Mauthe Lake where they concluded an eventful day by staying over night in a big barn on the grounds.

INTRAMURALS --- TEAM COMPETITION

For the past six years, the intramural race has proved to be an outstanding success at West Bend High School. Each incoming freshman is placed on one of ten teams, on which he remains until graduation. These teams compete against one another and points are awarded to individuals and to teams on the basis of victories and participation.

Special credit should be given to the Intramural Board, which is composed of managers from the various teams, and, also to the faculty directors, Mr. Caldwell, Mr. Kuss, and Mr. Panfil. The student managers and their respective teams are listed as follows: Pat Cooper, Gophers; Mary Hess, Hawkeyes; Judy Maxon, Wildcats; Dick Minch, Illini; Alan Bandle, Buckeyes; Mike Riebe, Badgers; Eileen Schiller, Wolverines; Mary Jo Thompson, Spartans; Sue Umbs, Hoosiers; and Mandy Weikum, Boilermakers.

However, the program of 1958-59 brought on problems not yet solved. Along with the new addition to the high school came the Y. A. C. (Youth Activity Center), the four-year physical education program, additional varsity sports, and a shorter period of time after school, as compared with preceding years. Because of these factors, several of the most popular activities have been cancelled, causing a serious disruption in the organization of the entire extra-curricular program.

Now that these problems have been recognized, it will require detailed planning and co-operation, between the Intramural Board and faculty members, to surmount them. With the present obstacles removed, next year's intramural program will again offer unlimited opportunity and enjoyment for everyone.

Mr. Kuss, Dick Minch, and Mr. Panfil look at an intramural award.

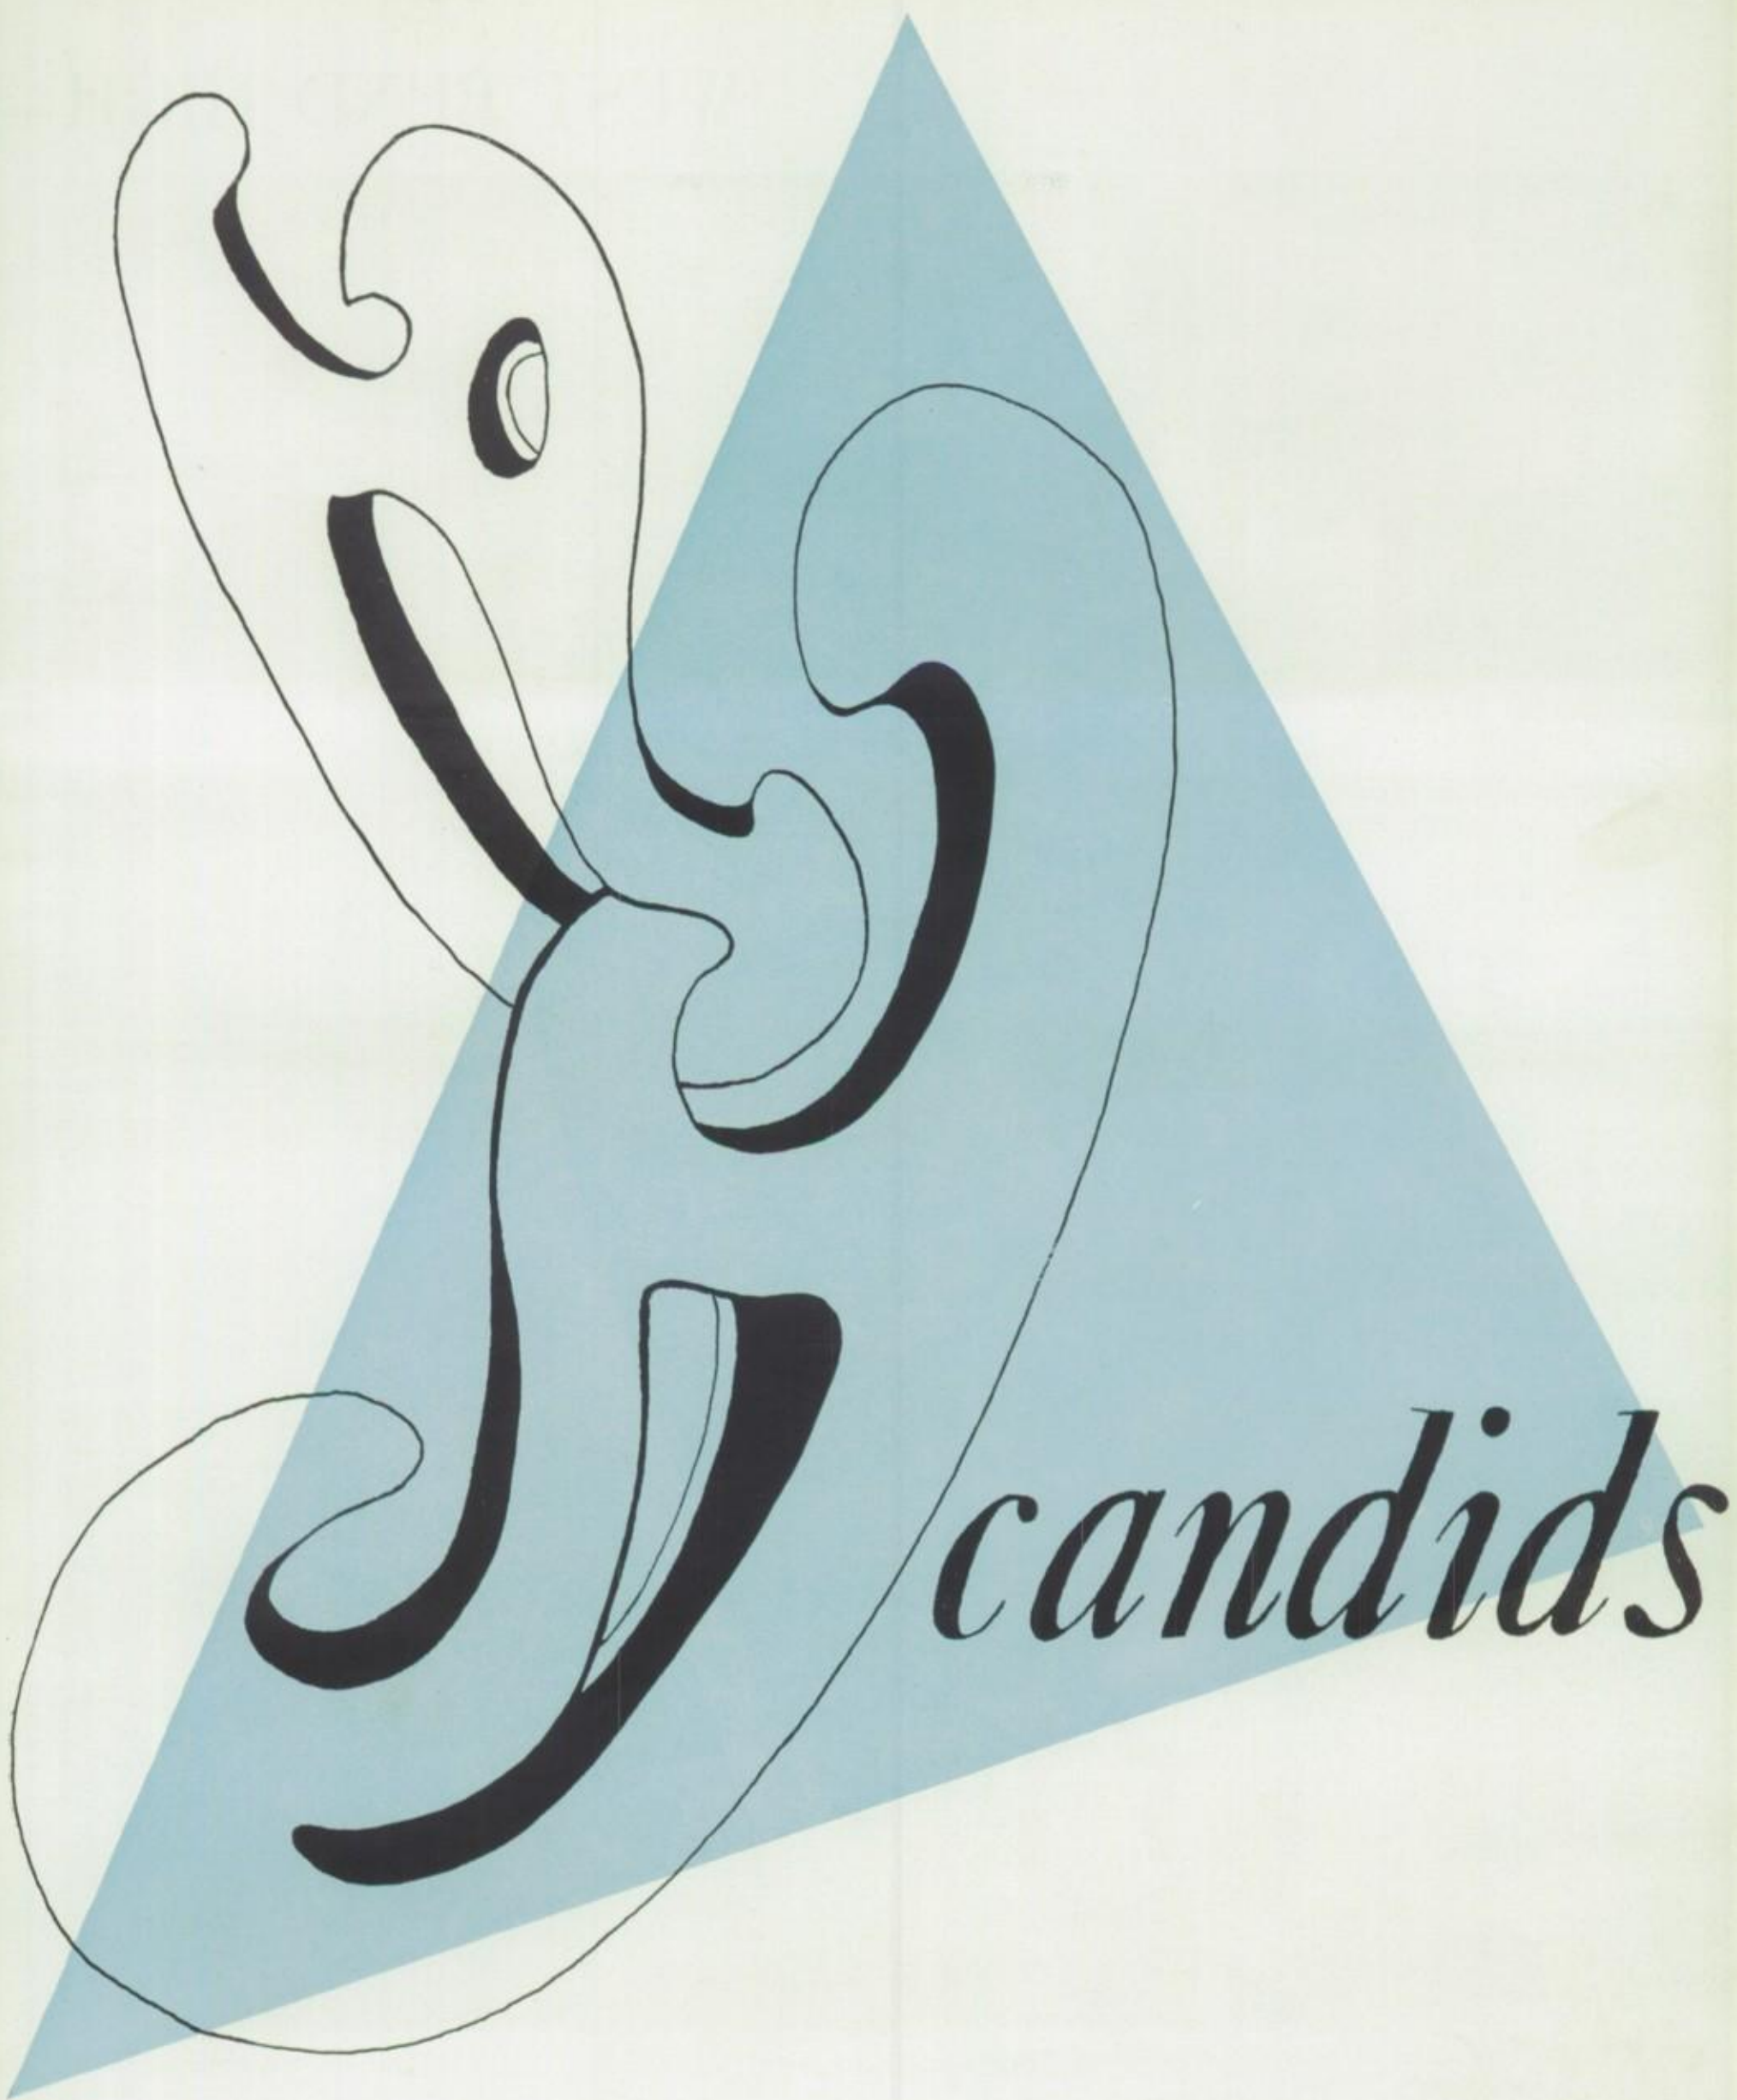

In Memoriam --- Carl Pick

Mr. Carl Pick, 70, prominent as an industrialist, sports enthusiast and civic leader, died on Monday, January 12, 1959, a cerebral hemorrhage due to a skull fracture suffered in a fall the previous evening causing his death.

At the time of his death he was president and treasurer of the Pick Manufacturing Co., and vice-president of the West Bend Lithia Co.

Mr. Pick was influential in the industrial development of West Bend, and also took part in the promotion and development of sports at West Bend High School as well as other sports activities throughout the city and state.

The grease I put on my hair during the past 16 years could fit in a pint bottle..... with the bottom out

Bob

Jim,
I tried hard to beat you in bumper pool, but I guess you are better than
I am.

Harv.

*Jim,
 Has fun having you in English
 have fun this summer
 Geometry &
 Lots of Luck,
 Noreen*
